

NARFE's Pledge to You

The National Active and Retired Federal Employees Association (NARFE)

is the only association dedicated to protecting the earned retirement benefits of federal employees, retirees and their survivors. Founded by 14 federal retirees in 1921, NARFE has become an effective and highly respected legislative voice for federal workers and retirees. Current membership is nearly 315,000 federal, District of Columbia*, and postal employees, retirees, spouses and survivors united to preserve the economic security and well-being of federal employees on the job and in retirement.

NARFE
PROTECTING YOUR FUTURE

What is NARFE Doing For You?

NARFE's objectives are to:

Sponsor and support legislation to protect the benefits and general welfare of its members on issues such as health benefits, retirement, etc.;

Inform members about legislative issues, primarily retirement income and health care benefits, taxation and cost of living adjustments;

Strengthen the political influence of current and future federal retirees through NARFE-PAC, a political action committee;

Cooperate with other organizations seeking to accomplish similar legislative goals;

Work in partnership with the Office of Personnel Management to answer questions related to retirement benefits;

Foster public recognition and appreciation of government service; and Contribute to the well-being of local communities through volunteer service.

Uniting for Action

NARFE is an organization governed by an elected leadership consisting of more than 1,400 chapters; 50 state federations, plus the District of Columbia, Panama, the Philippines and Puerto Rico. NARFE members represent a broad spectrum of government services. Most are covered by the Civil Service Retirement System (CSRS) or the Federal Employees Retirement System (FERS). Some members, however, receive retirement benefits from independent agency plans such as the Foreign Service Retirement System, Tennessee Valley Authority Retirement System, Federal Judiciary Retirement System, Central Intelligence Agency Retirement System and more than 40 others.

Your Membership Benefits Include:

- Assertive legislative representation on federal and state levels;
- Liaison with the Office of Personnel Management to help retirees and survivors with their benefits;
- Informative monthly magazine, NARFE, the prime source for information about federal retirement and health care issues;
- Up-to-date information through www.narfe.org and NARFE e-mail;
- Health, life, dental, and long-term care insurance programs;

- NARFE Premier Federal Credit Union;
- Travel packages, group tours and discounts through NARFE Travel Services;
- Discounts on car rentals, hotels, auto insurance, etc.;
- NARFE MasterCard program;
- United network of support with other federal employees and retirees; and
- Opportunities for leadership, political action and community service.

Who Can Join?

Membership is open to civilians who are or will be eligible to receive an annuity or survivor annuity from the federal retirement programs of any agency of the United States government, and the District of Columbia*, including:

- Retirees
- Active employees
- Spouses and surviving spouses of those eligible to join NARFE
- Former employees
- A former spouse who is legally entitled to a federal survivor annuity.

When you enroll in NARFE, you join the National Association and a chapter closest to your area of residence or another chapter of your choice. You may transfer to a different chapter at any time.
